Future Plans:

Teaching & Service:

I remain committed to the History Department at Texas A&M University. My aim is to play a positive role in enabling the entire department achieve our goals and maximize our output as a community of teachers and scholars, actively engaged in in the study of the past.

Work in Progress:

History of England. I am currently writing a History of England. I will offer some new interpretations, perspectives, and vantage points from which to view England's past. Above all I intend to write for a broad readership.

In mid-2018 I plan to visit Belfast, UK, in order to conduct archival research in the Public Record Office of Northern Ireland and elsewhere in Ireland.
