The History Graduate Student Organization and the Sigma Rho Chapter of Phi Alpha Theta at Texas A&M University are proud to announce our 2019 graduate and undergraduate history student conference. The conference will take place on April 12-13, 2019. This conference is an opportunity for graduate and undergraduate students to showcase their research in front of their peers and experts from a variety of historical fields.

We are excited to announce Dr. Julio Capó Jr. of the University of Massachusetts - Amherst as the keynote speaker. Additional speakers are Raymond Hernandez, Council Member & Cultural Preservationist Tap Pilam Nation, and Ramon J. Vasquez, Executive Director American Indians in Texas-Spanish Colonial Missions.
